

St. Mary-Hannah School
Catholic Schools Week Schedule 2012

Catholic Schools Week is coming soon. This is a time we celebrate with the people who have helped our school throughout its 104 year history. This is a special week in which all Catholic Schools across the nation recognize the groups of people that contribute, in their own unique way, to each school. Each day's special events are to recognize and thank everyone for being an active member of our school and parish.

- Sunday, Jan. 29- Mass for the parishioners. Students are asked to wear their uniforms to Mass this day.
- Monday Jan. 30-Staff Appreciation Day – luncheon for staff. Crazy Clothes Day for students.
- Tuesday, Jan. 31-Christian Service Day (cards, bible verses, wrapping of prayer shawls). Crazy Hat and Sock Day with uniforms.
- Wednesday, Feb. 1-Christian Service Day continued (food drive and items for soldiers). Pajama Day. Catechism Bee at 10:45 a.m.
- Thursday, Feb. 2- Volunteer Appreciation Day. Candlemas at 9:00 a.m. Students wear uniforms.
- Friday, Feb. 3-Student Appreciation Day-10:00 a.m. Blessing of throats (St. Blaise). Ice skating at Centre Ice from Noon-1:30 p.m., followed by hot cocoa and cookies. All families are welcome. Favorite Sports Team Shirt and Jean Day. Announce winners of the Catholic School Essay Contest.
- Saturday, Feb. 4-Family Appreciation Day-Movie night in the gym. The movie "Dolphin Tale" will be shown after the 5:00 Mass, at 7:00 p.m. Concession items will be available to purchase for dinner/snack at 6:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Families are encouraged to attend as many of the events as possible. Mark your calendars now and ask for time off from work to attend the ice skating on Friday and/or the Family Movie night on Saturday. Please contact the school if you have any questions.
